CHÂTEAU GANDOY PERRINAT 1281

Bordeaux Blanc Sec

ORIGIN - TERROIR

Château Gandoy Perrinat was formerly a modestly sized domaine covering just twenty hectares. It has been entirely renovated and fitted with state of the art winemaking facilities. The château now covers over a hundred hectares of vines planted in clay-limestone soils.

The name of this wine relates back to the history of Sauveterre de Guyenne, the commune in which the château is situated. This imposing bastide in the Entre-Deux-Mers region was founded in 1281 by Edward I Plantagenet, King of England and the Duke of Aquitaine, to provide protection for his subjects who were at the mercy of looters. The town has had a difficult history over the centuries and has survived the Hundred Year War, the French Revolution and the two World Wars.

CULTIVATION

Sustainable methods

TASTING NOTES

Château Gandoy Perrinat 1281 is bright and clear with a pale yellow hue. The nose reveals delicate aromas of citrus fruits and white flowers combined with mineral notes. The fresh attack gives way to a harmonious mid-palate characterised by notes of hazelnut and honey.

FOOD & WINE PAIRING

Château Gandoy Perrinat 1281 is ideal served as an aperitif or with seafood, shellfish, grilled fish and smoked salmon. It also makes the ideal partner for fresh or mature goats cheeses, Comté or Saint-Félicien.

Enjoy served between 10°C and 12°C.
